

SETTING WORK- READING PACK

Miss_docc

Scene Setting

The name of my book _____

The author of my book _____

Draw the main setting of your book

A large, empty rectangular box with a thick black border, intended for drawing the main setting of the book.

This book was...

Name: _____

Date: _____

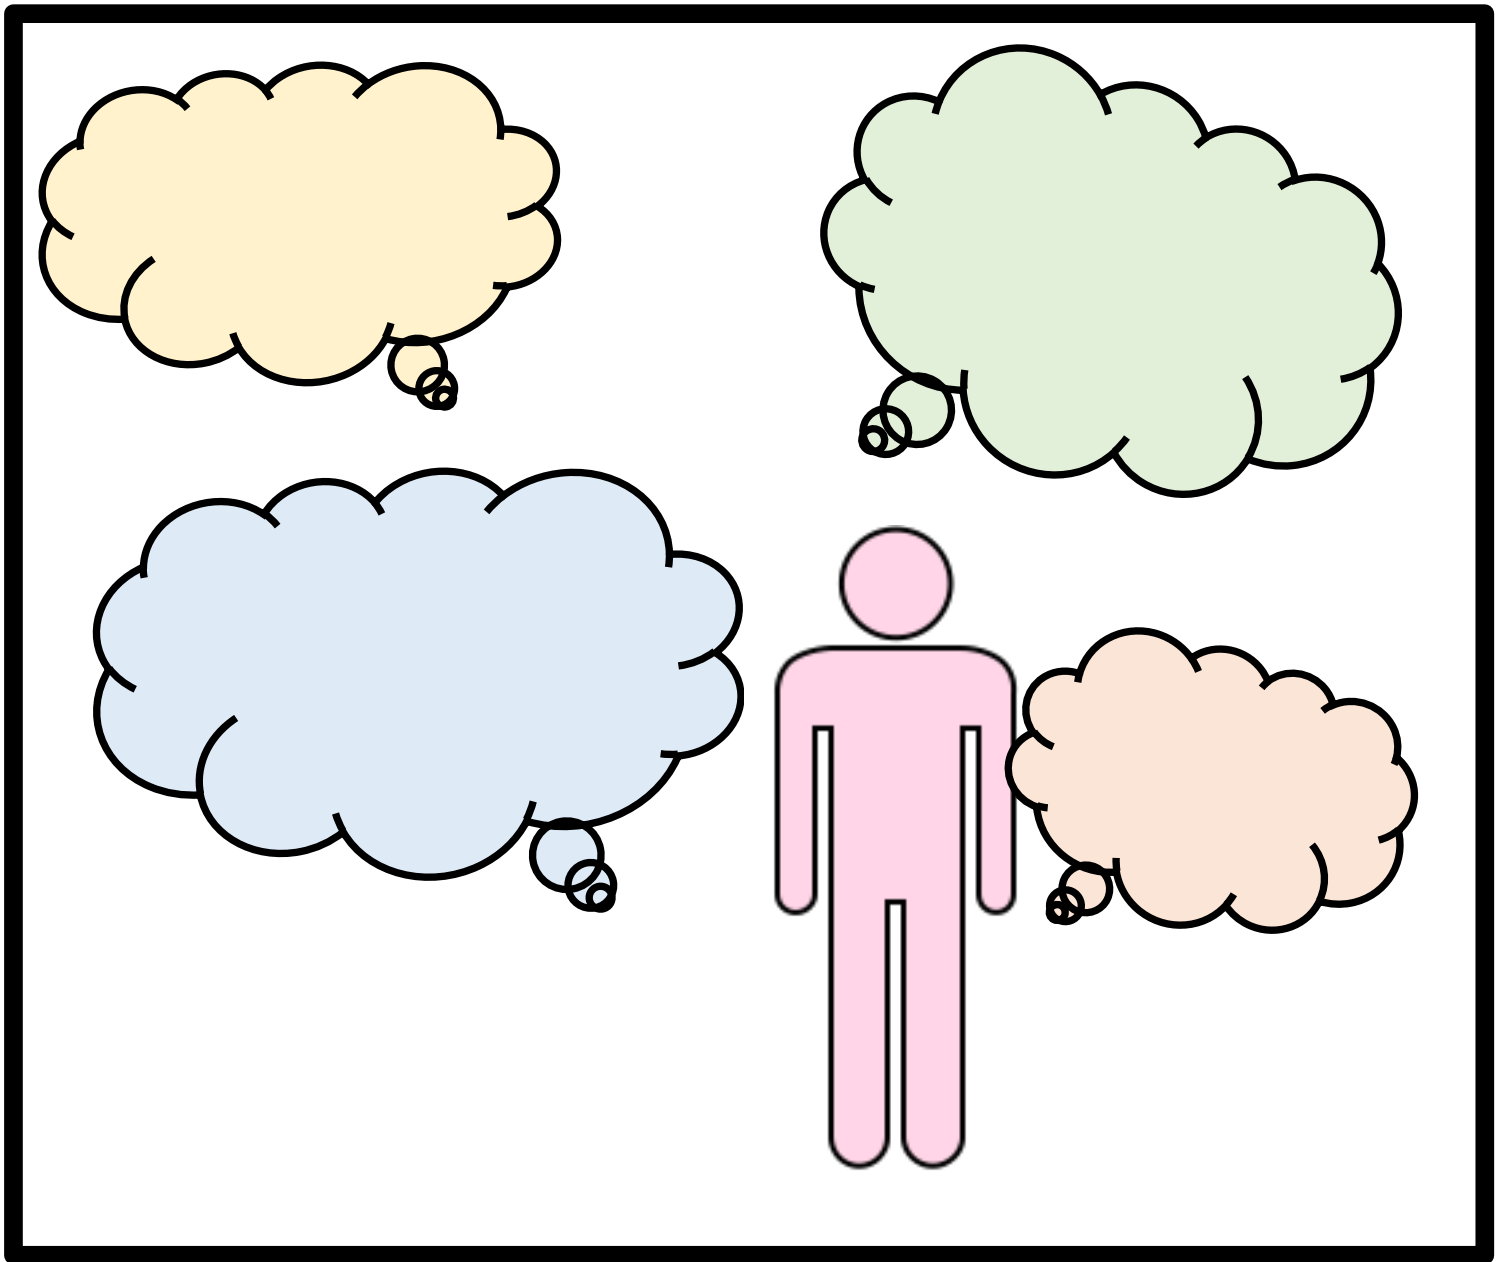

Scene Setting

The name of my book _____

The author of my book _____

Can you draw the sounds your think you could hear from the main setting of your book

This book was...

Name: _____

Date: _____

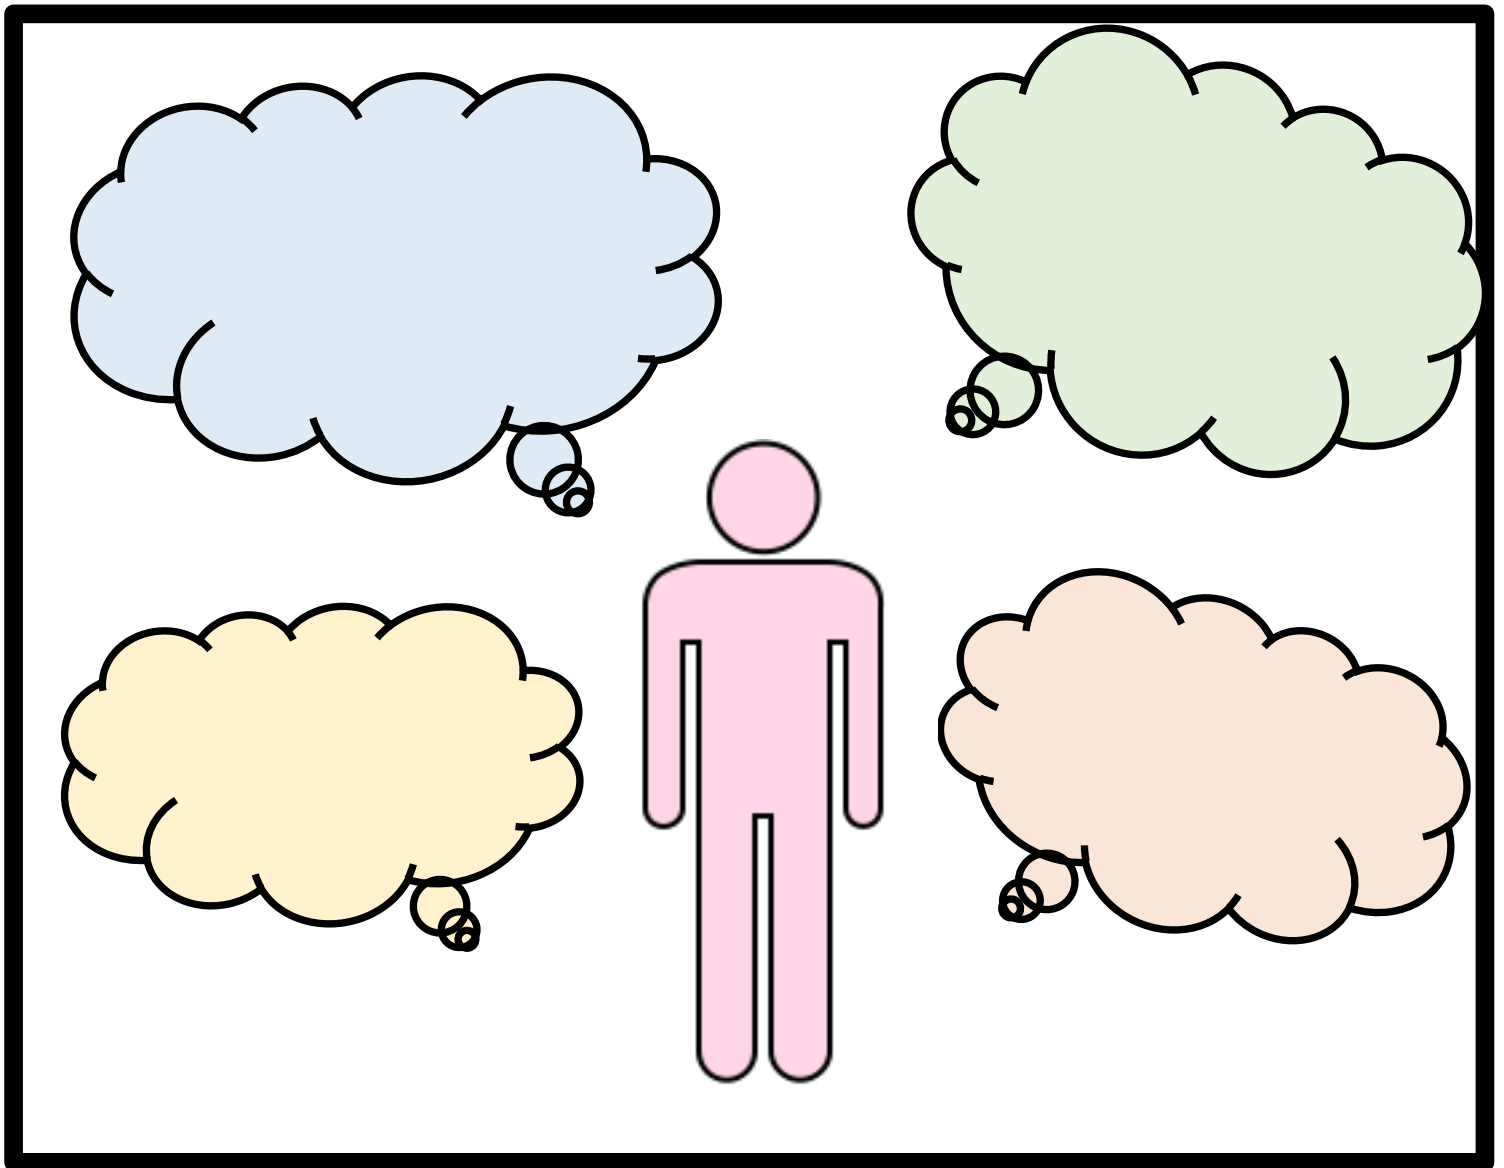

Scene Setting

The name of my book _____

The author of my book _____

What smells do you think the characters could smell during the book?

This book was...

Name: _____

Date: _____

Scene Setting

The name of my book _____

The author of my book _____

Write a new setting for your book, what can the characters see, hear, smell and feel?

A large rectangular box with a thick black border, containing eight horizontal lines for writing.

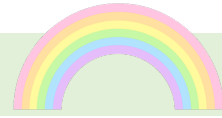

This book was...

Name: _____

Date: _____

Scene Setting

The name of my book _____

The author of my book _____

Write a postcard to a friend, pretend you are in the story location. Tell them why they should come and stay too.

A large rectangular box with a thick black border, containing eight horizontal lines for writing a postcard message.

This book was...

Name: _____

Date: _____

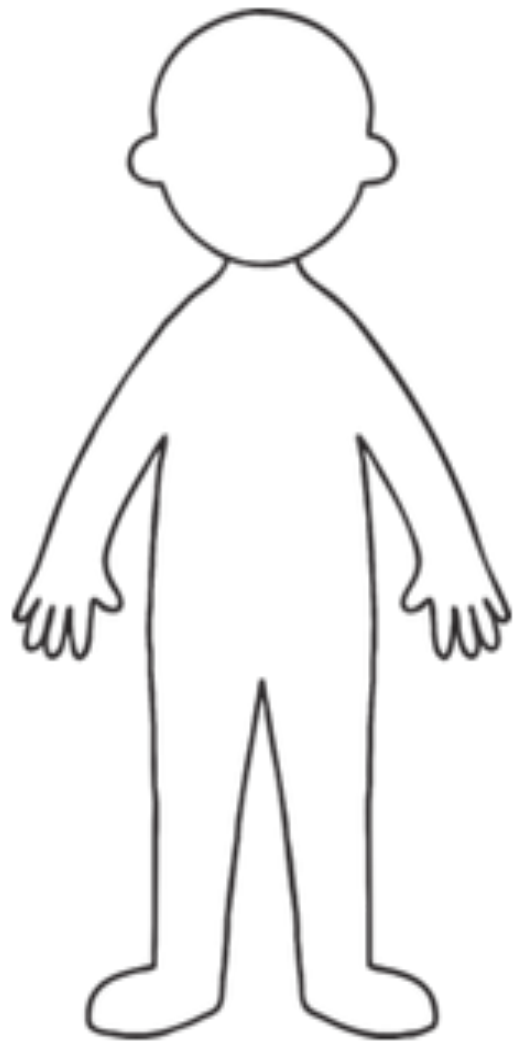

Scene Setting

The name of my book _____

The author of my book _____

Your friend is going to stay in the story setting, pack their bag for the story weather and location.

This book was...

Name: _____

Date: _____

Scene Setting

The name of my book _____

The author of my book _____

Draw a new location for your book to take place in. What is the weather like here? Is it quite or busy

A large, empty rectangular box with a thick black border, intended for drawing a new location for the book.

This book was...

Name: _____

Date: _____